Effective Date	5/1/20
Last Revision/Review	8/15/2020, 4/28/23

1. Purpose

Documentation of procedures for completion of the federal 90-10 report.

2. Related Policy/Authority

Policy B9500 Title IV Compliance; CFR 668.28

3. Faculty/Staff Responsibilities

The Bursar will prepare the Federal 90-10 report in accordance with this SOP. The Controller and CFO will review the 90-10 Report and ensure that it is incorporated into the audited annual financial statement footnotes.

4. Definitions/Abbreviations

Audit 90-10 Summary and Detail Reports: A custom report which extracts student data posted to the student ledgers in the SIS.

5. Procedural Steps

1. The Financial Aid Office and the Bursar will populate the student information system (SIS) with financial aid award data at the student level.
2. The Bursar will extract from the SIS the report Audit 90-10 Summary and its subsidiary detail reports. In compliance with CFR 668.28 and related guidance from FSA Handbook Volume 2 Chapter 4, the report will calculate revenue from allowable tuition and fees on the cash basis of accounting per the specific instructions provided through the referenced federal regulations and supporting guidance.
3. The Bursar will reconcile the cash basis federal financial aid received as included in this report to the G5 records provided by the federal government for the applicable period.
4. The Bursar will reconcile the Audit 90-10 Report student balances to remaining accounts receivable due from students and to any student credit balances remaining after application of sources of funds. The Controller will review this reconciliation.
5. The Controller will reconcile the Audit 90-10 Report to accrual basis tuition and fees reported on the annual financial statements. The CFO will review this reconciliation.
6. The completed 90-10 Report will follow the referenced template format.
7. The completed 90-10 report will be included in the annual financial statement footnotes, and will be subject to audit, per federal requirements.
