Article I. Name

This body will be known as the Faculty Council of the Burrell College of Health Sciences (Burrell or College).

Article II. Purpose

To support and represent faculty interests at Burrell College of Health Sciences, and to provide an organizational means through which the faculty can exercise their responsibilities in the shared governance of the institution.

Article III. General Considerations

Section 1. Faculty Assembly and Faculty Council defined.

- 1) The Faculty Assembly at Burrell includes all individuals with any type of faculty appointment and/or teaching role in fulfilling the mission of the College.
- 2) The Faculty Council at Burrell is a subset of the Faculty Assembly, and includes all individuals with regular faculty appointments, i.e., Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor, or Instructor. Faculty Council membership does not apply to those faculty holding adjunct, clinical, or temporary appointments; nor does it apply to faculty with any level of administrative appointment, such as Provost, Dean, Associate Dean, Assistant Dean, or President of the College, as these individuals exercise their roles in shared governance elsewhere in their official capacities.

Section 2. Active and diligent faculty participation is key to faculty committee effectiveness in the governance process. The Faculty Council provides the faculty a mechanism to voice their opinions and to discuss topics of interest and issues of concern among the faculty. Faculty Council meetings are to share and disseminate information among faculty, and represent a forum where College procedures and policies may be discussed and actions considered.

Section 3. Faculty involvement in governance of the College is achieved through active participation in the Committee structure of the College. Assignment of Faculty Council members to elected faculty seats on Burrell committees will be determined by elections conducted through Faculty Council, as described below.

Article IV. Duties & Responsibilities

Section 1. Facilitate and enhance communication between all faculty members of Burrell and between the faculty and the Burrell administrative leadership.

Section 2. Serve as a scholarly forum to discuss achievement of the mission of Burrell.

Section 3. Advise the Burrell administrative leadership, via the Faculty Council Leadership Committee, on faculty matters pertaining, but not limited to: academics, faculty development, facilities, benefits, and policy.

Section 4. Provide recommendations to the appropriate school Dean regarding appointments to committee positions.

Section 5. Facilitate elections for faculty representation on institutional and Faculty Council committees.

Section 6. Create standing and ad hoc committees, as deemed appropriate by the Faculty Council, to carry out the responsibilities of the Council, or to address matters related to Burrell faculty activities. Faculty membership on standing and ad hoc committees shall include representation from each additional location, as applicable.

Section 7. The Faculty Council shall promote representation of all academic schools of the College in its leadership and committee structure whenever eligible faculty members are available and willing to serve.

Section 8. Convene meetings of the Faculty Assembly at least once per year.

Article V. Membership

Section 1. Membership qualifications, rights and duties of the Faculty Council.

- 1) The Faculty Council at Burrell is a subset of the Faculty Assembly, and includes all individuals with regular faculty appointments who do not hold concurrent administrative appointments of Dean, Associate Dean, Assistant Dean, or President.
- 2) All members of the Faculty Council have the right to vote on all matters of business before the Council.
- 3) The Faculty Council Secretary will verify eligibility of Faculty Council members with the Human Resources Office.

Section 2. Faculty Council Leadership Committee

The Faculty Council Leadership Committee consists of 5 members of Faculty Council, elected by their peers to represent them. Faculty membership shall include representation from each additional location, as applicable. To ensure representation of all academic units of the College, the Faculty Council Leadership Committee and standing committees should include members from each academic school whenever eligible faculty are available and willing to serve. The Faculty Council Leadership Committee consists of a Chair, Vice-Chair, Past-Chair, Secretary, and Parliamentarian. The positions of Vice Chair, Chair, and Past Chair are meant to be served sequentially as part of a three-year leadership cycle. All members of the Faculty Council Leadership Committee have full voting rights in business before the Committee. Terms as officers begin July 1st and end June 30th, except in the case where a special election is required to fill a position.

- 1) Chair: The Chair of the Faculty Council provides leadership to the Faculty Council and advises the College administration on matters concerning the faculty. A Faculty Council member elected to the position of Vice-Chair automatically assumes the position of Chair at the completion of their term as Vice Chair. In addition, should the Chair be unable to complete the term, the Vice Chair assumes the office and retains the right to serve in that office for the subsequent term. At the completion of the one-year term as Chair, the individual automatically assumes the position of Past-Chair.

- a) The duties of the Chair are to:
 - i) Call and preside over all meetings of the Faculty Assembly, Faculty Council and Faculty Council Leadership Committee.
 - ii) Represent the Burrell Faculty as a voting member of the Executive Committee of the College. In the event that the Chair of the Faculty Council holds another voting role on the Executive Committee, a different member of the Faculty Council Leadership Committee will be designated to serve in this role.

- iii) Communicate decisions of the Faculty Council to the Burrell administrative leadership as appropriate.
- b) In the event there is a vacancy in the office of the Chair and the office of the Vice Chair concurrently, a special election shall be held to fill these roles within thirty days of the double vacancy.
 - i) If the vacancies are filled before November 1, the Chair and Vice Chair shall complete the vacant term.
 - ii) If the vacancies are filled after November 1, the Chair, Vice Chair, and Past Chair shall complete the vacant term and retain the right to serve in these offices for the subsequent term.

Past Chair: The Past Chair of the Faculty Council provides leadership and institutional memory to the Faculty Council and its Leadership Committee. At the conclusion of the term as Chair, an individual automatically assumes the position of Past Chair, for a term of one year. If a vacancy occurs in the position of Past Chair, the Faculty Council Leadership Committee will appoint a previous Past Chair to complete the vacant term. If no Past Chair can be appointed, the Faculty Council Leadership Committee will appoint a member of the Faculty Council to fill an at-large seat. Following service as Past Chair, an individual may not serve on the Faculty Council Leadership Committee for three years. A Faculty Council member who serves the remaining term of a departed Past Chair does not lose their eligibility to seek a Faculty Council Leadership Committee role at the next election.

- a) In the event there is a vacancy in the office of the Chair and the office of the Vice Chair concurrently, the past chair will serve as the interim chair with full responsibilities of the chair and to oversee the special election process.

2) Vice Chair: The Vice Chair of the Faculty Council is elected by the Faculty Council and serves a one-year term as Vice Chair. Upon completion of the term as Vice-Chair of the Faculty Council, the Vice Chair automatically assumes the position of Chair of the Faculty Council for the subsequent year.

- a) The duties of the Vice Chair are to:
 - i) Assist the Chair in the duties of service to the Faculty Council.
 - ii) Supervise the selection and organization of the Elections Committee.
 - iii) Assume the responsibilities of the Chair in the Chair's absence.
- b) A vacancy in the office of Vice Chair will be filled through a special election by the Faculty Council held within thirty days of the vacancy.
- c) In the event there is a vacancy in the office of the Vice Chair and the office of the Chair concurrently, there shall be a special election to fill these roles within thirty days of the double vacancy.
 - i) If the vacancies are filled prior to November 1, the Chair and Vice Chair shall complete the vacant term.
 - ii) If the vacancies are filled after November 1, the Chair, Vice Chair, Past Chair shall complete the vacant term and retain the right to serve in these offices for the subsequent term.

3) Secretary: The Secretary of the Faculty Council is elected by the Faculty Council and will serve a one-year term. The Secretary can serve no more than two consecutive terms in the position of Secretary.

- a) The duties of the Secretary are to:
 - i) Distribute all notices, calls, agendas, and minutes of Faculty Council meetings to members of the Faculty Council and such other persons as the Faculty Council Leadership Committee directs.
 - ii) Record and preserve minutes of all meetings of the Faculty Council, the votes taken therein, special reports, election results, and all other official actions. Notes that detail Faculty Council discussions but do not result in action will also be recorded and preserved.
 - iii) Preserve on file all documents and papers that belong to the Faculty Council, or which are made part of the proceedings.

- iv) Ensure that the Faculty Council be notified of all appropriate business that should be brought before it.

4) Parliamentarian: The Faculty Council Parliamentarian advises the faculty on the rules and issues relating to faculty governance and advises the presiding officer on issues of procedure and conduct at Faculty Council meetings. The Parliamentarian serves a one-year term; Faculty Council members elected to this office may not serve more than two consecutive terms.

a) The duties of the Parliamentarian are to:

- i) Advise the Chair on matters of parliamentary procedure during Faculty Council meetings.
- ii) Advise the Chair and Faculty Council on the interpretation and application of these bylaws.
- iii) Investigate archival and other sources to determine documentary evidence and precedents relevant to Faculty Council and its business.
- iv) The Parliamentarian must, in all cases, act with impartiality and neutrality with regard to parliamentary procedure and interpretation of bylaws and other documents.

5) Meetings: The Faculty Council Leadership Committee meets monthly, or as necessary, to fulfill its obligations to the Faculty Council and to provide sufficient opportunity for faculty to engage in the business before each group.

- a) A quorum of the Faculty Council Leadership Committee is a majority of the members, and is required to conduct formal business.
- b) Faculty Council Leadership Committee meetings are open to any member of the Faculty Council. Notice of upcoming meetings will be provided to Faculty Council members.
- c) A quorum of Faculty Council Leadership Committee may not conduct official business without an agenda or recording the minutes of the meeting.

Article VI. Election of Officers and Burrell Committee Members

Section 1. Elections Committee: The Leadership Committee, led by the Vice-Chair, appoints an ad hoc Election Committee composed of three members of the Faculty Council, by the last business day of March of each academic year. Care should be taken by the Faculty Council Leadership Committee to ensure that the composition of the Elections Committee reflects, as well as possible, a unique combination of Faculty Council members each year. If sufficient faculty members cannot be found to fill an Elections Committee in compliance with this rule, the Leadership Committee will manage the process as described below.

- 1) The Elections Committee organizes and oversees the election process.
- 2) The Elections Committee collects and tabulates the election results, and presents the final results to the Chair of the Leadership Committee, and subsequently to the Faculty Council.
- 3) Members of the Elections Committee are not eligible for election to a Faculty Council Leadership Committee office during their period of service on the Elections Committee, but remain eligible for election to other Burrell committee faculty positions.
- 4) The Elections Committee is charged with confidentiality throughout its work in the election process.
- 5) At the conclusion of the election process in June, the members' service on the Election Committee is concluded.

Section 2. Nominations for Elections

- 1) Prior to seeking nominations, the Faculty Council Leadership Committee will distribute a list of all of the Burrell Committee positions that are subject to either election or appointment for the upcoming academic year.

- 2) Faculty Council members will have the opportunity to identify their preferences for service, and submit their preferences to the Secretary of the Faculty Council by the second Friday in April. The Faculty Council Secretary will forward these preferences to the Chair of the Elections Committee.
 - a) Faculty are encouraged to communicate with their department chairs or supervisors as to how their intended service commitment will fit into their overall contractual obligations of teaching, scholarship, and service.
- 3) The Elections Committee must develop a ballot that takes into account, as well as possible, individual faculty preferences for service, and in consultation with the Chair of the Faculty Council, work to see that all open spots for either election or appointment have nominees who are willing, able, and eligible to serve in these committee positions.
- 4) Once a draft ballot is developed, it will be presented at the next regular or special meeting of the Faculty Council.
- 5) Where an actual vote is required between multiple candidates for election-eligible positions, such a vote will be managed by the Elections Committee.
- 6) If there are not more candidates than open positions on a committee, the candidates will nonetheless be presented to the Faculty Council for consideration and confirmation.

Section 3. Voting will be conducted in the form of a secret ballot administered in either paper or electronic format. Ballots will be distributed electronically by the end of the second week in May, and will be due back to the Elections Committee no later than the end of the first business day in June. Election results will be announced within one week of the close of voting. If necessary, run-off elections will be held in the second week of June, and the run-off results announced by the last Friday of the month of June.

Section 4. Election winners must receive a simple majority of all the votes cast.

Section 5. In the event of a tie, a run-off election between the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes for that position will be held.

Section 6. All elected terms will begin July 1st and end June 30th, except in the case where a special election is required to fill a position vacated in mid-term.

Article VII. Faculty Council Meetings

Section 1. The Faculty Council meets at a minimum of four (4) times each year (quarterly). The Council may meet more frequently as appropriate to address the needs of the faculty. Due diligence will be made to provide electronic access for off-site individuals to participate in Faculty Council meetings if requested in writing to the Secretary at least 24 hours in advance.

Section 2. A quorum is defined as a majority (50% + 1) of Faculty Council members.

- 1) A quorum of the members is not necessary for a meeting to take place.
- 2) If the Faculty Council wishes to take official actions or make formal recommendations, a quorum of members must be present.

Section 3. Agenda. Any issues for consideration by the Faculty Council should be submitted to the Secretary no less than one week prior to the next scheduled Faculty Council meeting.

- 1) The Leadership Committee is responsible for preparing the meeting agenda, including a judgement on member-submitted agenda items as pertinent and relevant for submission to the Faculty.
- 2) Items may be submitted for formal inclusion on the Faculty Council agenda by either the Faculty Council Leadership Committee or any Faculty Council member.
- 3) Proposed agendas for Faculty Council meetings will be made available to the Faculty Council membership three (3) calendar days before each Faculty Council meeting.
- 4) Any member of the Faculty Council can propose a new item to the business agenda as a regular motion in any Faculty Council meeting at any time.

Section 4. The Chair of the Faculty Council may call a special Faculty Council meeting. The purpose of the meeting must be stated in the call.

Section 5. By petition, 25% of the Faculty Council membership may call a special Faculty Council meeting.

- 1) The purpose of the meeting must be stated in the petition.
- 2) The petition must be submitted to the Secretary of the Faculty Council Leadership Committee.
- 3) Upon receipt of a valid petition, the Faculty Council Leadership Committee must call a meeting of the Faculty Council within seven (7) business days.

Section 6. Voting at regular or special meetings of the Faculty Council cannot be done by proxy.

Section 7. Any action which may be taken at a regular or special meeting of the Council, such as election of officers, may be taken without a meeting through a vote of the membership. Voting may be by written or electronic ballot.

Section 8. For any action taken outside of a regular or special meeting of the Council, the solicitation for votes by ballot must state the quorum requirement, the number of affirmative votes necessary for approval of each proposed action, and the time by which the ballot must be received in order to be counted.

Section 9. For any action taken outside of a regular or special meeting of the Council, the ballot must describe each proposed action and provide an opportunity to vote for or against each proposed action. Approval of an action is valid only when the number of votes cast equals or exceeds the quorum required for a regular or special meeting.

Section 10. No error or omission in the notification of a regular or special meeting invalidates the meeting or makes void its proceedings as long as such an error or omission was made in good faith and for no improper purpose.

Article VIII. Academic Freedom

The College respects the academic freedom of faculty members and has adopted principles consistent with those promoted by the American Association of University Professors. The full Burrell policy on academic freedom is found in the Faculty Handbook.

Article IX. Standing Committees

Section 1. The Faculty Council maintains and supports the following standing committees: Faculty Awards Committee, Faculty Grievance Committee, Faculty Library Advisory Committee, and Faculty Policy Advisory Committee. Each committee develops a set of policies and operating procedures, subject to approval by the Faculty Council Leadership Committee, that governs its activities.

Section 2. All Standing Committee meetings are considered to be open meetings unless a motion for closure is made by a member of the committee with the provision of a reasonably specific explanation for why the meeting or a portion thereof should be closed. In addition, special invitations to attend may be extended by the chairs of each committee to individuals outside of those described as voting and non-voting participants below.

Section 3. All terms on Faculty Council Committees will begin on July 1st and end on June 30th, except in the case where a special election is required to fill a position vacated in mid-term.

1) Faculty Awards Committee

a) Charge and Responsibility.

- i) The Faculty Awards Committee will develop, keep current, and recommend criteria and procedures to the institution for developing and awarding the various Faculty Awards that include Teaching, Research and/or Scholarly Activity, and Service.
- ii) The Faculty Awards Committee, on the basis of i) above, identifies and selects award recipients and notifies the Faculty Council Chair and the Dean of the College.

b) Membership and Terms

- i) The Faculty Awards Committee is composed of six voting members. The six voting members are the recipients of the awards from the previous two award cycles; three from each year. At the conclusion of their two-year terms and a subsequent one-year interim, each committee member is again eligible for Faculty Awards.

ii) Officers

Chair. The Chair will serve a one-year term and will: convene and preside over committee meetings and ensure that minutes are recorded; oversee and facilitate award nomination and selection processes, ensuring that timelines are met; communicate information regarding the awards and related functions; and maintain contact with the Chair of Faculty Council regarding Committee activities.

Chair-Elect. The Chair-Elect will serve a one-year term and then transition to the role of Chair in the following year, and will: assist the Chair in fulfilling Committee responsibilities as assigned; preside over meetings in the Chair's absence; ensure that procedural documents and scoring rubrics are maintained; and oversee nomination submission processes.

- iii) Committee vacancies will be filled by special election to serve.

- iv) A quorum of this committee is four members.

- v) Initially, three members will be elected by the Faculty Council.

- vi) Following two years of awards, Sections b) v, and b) vi (this section) will be no longer in effect.

2) Faculty Grievance Committee

- a) Charge for the Faculty Grievance Committee
 - i) The Faculty Grievance Committee is charged with handling any faculty grievances as may come before it, provided that such matters are not otherwise addressed by the policies and procedures of the College. They may conduct hearings and/or proceedings as the committee deems necessary.
 - ii) The Faculty Grievance Committee provides written recommendations to the Chief Academic Officer of the College regarding specific actions. The reasons for the decision, stated separately as to facts and conclusions, are a part of this recommendation.
- b) Membership and Composition
 - i) The Faculty Grievance Committee consists of five (5) faculty members elected from the Faculty Council. Faculty membership shall include representation from each additional location, as applicable. All efforts should be made to seek representation from all faculty member ranks.
 - ii) The members of the Grievance Committee will elect a Chair and Vice-Chair from among their membership.
 - iii) The Faculty Grievance Committee will elect a Secretary from its members who will send out all required notices, record the minutes of the committee's proceedings, and who will be responsible for maintaining the records of the Committee.
- c) Terms and Conditions
 - i) The initial term of the Chairperson will be three (3) years.
 - ii) The terms of the remaining four members of the Faculty Grievance Committee will be staggered. The initial Vice-Chairperson and Secretary will serve two-year terms and the remaining two (2) initial members will be appointed for one-year terms.
 - iii) All selections to the Committee after the initial founding membership will be for three (3) years.
 - iv) Should a vacancy arise on the Grievance Committee, a new member will be appointed by the Chair of the Faculty Council following consultation with Department Chairs to serve for the remainder of the vacated term.
 - v) All subsequent Chairs, Vice Chairs, and Secretaries will be selected by the members of the Committee.

3) Faculty Library Advisory Committee

- a) Charge and Responsibility
 - i) The Faculty Library Advisory Committee will provide a forum for faculty to inform decision-making relating to library collections, resources, and services in support of teaching, learning, research, and student success at Burrell.
 - ii) Committee members will also serve as a library liaison to/from their department to facilitate information sharing among the faculty.
- b) Membership and Terms
 - i) The Faculty Library Advisory Committee is composed of eight voting members with one representative from each of the following departments and two students from the Student Government Association (SGA): Anatomy & Cell Biology, Biomedical Sciences, Clinical Medicine, OMM, Physiology & Pathology, Preclinical Medicine, two from SGA OMSII; and two non-voting ex officio members: Faculty Council Leadership representative and the Library Director. Membership shall include representation from each additional location, as applicable.
 - ii) A call for nominations to fill vacant seats on the Committee is initiated by Faculty Council. Eligible faculty representatives are recommended by their respective department chairs and the student representative is recommended by the SGA President. The Faculty Council Leadership representative is directly appointed by the Faculty Council Chair. All recommendations are presented to the Faculty Council Leadership Committee for confirmation of membership appointments.

- iii) The terms of the faculty representatives will be staggered. Initially, two faculty members will serve two-year terms and three faculty members will serve three-year terms. The SGA/OMSII and Faculty Council ex officio member will always serve a one-year term.
 - (1) All faculty appointments to the Committee after the initial founding membership will be for three years.
- c) Officers
 - i) The Library Director serves as the Chair of the Committee and will: convene and preside over Committee meetings and ensure that minutes are recorded; assure that identified tasks are completed within designated timelines; and maintain contact with the Chair of the Faculty Council regarding Committee activities.
- d) Meetings
 - i) There will be a minimum of two meetings convened each academic year.
 - ii) A quorum of four members will be required for any formal action to be advanced by a vote.

4) Faculty Policy Advisory Committee

- a) Charge and Responsibility
 - i) The Faculty Policy Advisory Committee will review and provide recommendations to the Faculty Council Leadership Committee and Faculty Council on changes to bylaws, policies, standard operating procedures, handbooks, guidelines, and any other document that may affect the Faculty Council
 - ii) Communicate with the Faculty Council on important matters of policy, reporting regularly at Faculty Council Leadership Committee and Faculty Council meetings
 - iii) Review, at least every three years, documentation that may affect the faculty and provide an updated report outlining any changes that have been introduced to these documents, to the Faculty Council
 - iv) Collaborate with faculty, staff, student, or administrative entities to preview and review all documents that may affect faculty
- b) Membership and Terms
 - i) The Faculty Policy Advisory Committee is composed of seven voting members with at least one representative from each of the following departments: Anatomy & Cell Biology, Biomedical Sciences, Clinical Medicine, Osteopathic Manipulative Medicine, Physiology & Pathology, and Preclinical Medicine; the seventh member will be elected as an at-large member.
 - 1) Elections will be administered by the Faculty Council Election Committee, facilitated by the Vice Chair of the Faculty Council Leadership Committee. The Elections Committee will solicit nominations from each department and manage the elections for each department thereafter. Each election shall be approved by majority vote of the Faculty Council Leadership Committee.
 - 2) Nominations for the at-large member will be solicited from the Faculty Council and approved by majority vote of the Faculty Council Leadership Committee.
 - 3) The nomination process will reopen if the candidate is not approved by the Faculty Council Leadership Committee.
 - ii) Membership shall include representation from each additional location, as applicable.
 - iii) The members of the Faculty Policy Advisory Committee will elect a Chair, Vice-Chair, and Secretary from among their membership.
 - iv) Faculty members shall not serve concurrent terms on the Faculty Council Leadership Committee and this committee.

- v) Officers
 - 1) Chair. The Chair will serve a two-year term and will convene and preside over committee meetings, set the agenda of the committee, communicate committee business to the Faculty Council Chair and Faculty Council Leadership Committee, as needed. The Chair will report on committee business at Faculty Council meetings.
 - 2) Vice-Chair. The Vice-Chair will serve a two-year term and will assume the responsibilities of the Chair in their absence.
 - 3) Secretary. The Secretary will record the minutes of the committee's proceedings and will be responsible for maintaining the records of the committee. The Secretary will serve a two-year term.
- vi) Committee vacancies that occur midterm shall be filled by appointment by a majority vote of a quorum of members of the Faculty Council Leadership Committee and Faculty Policy Advisory Committee.
- vii) Members of the Faculty Policy Advisory Committee shall serve a 2-year term, without term limits.
- c) Meetings and Proceedings
 - i) There will be a minimum of two meetings convened each academic year.
 - ii) A quorum of four members will be required for any formal action to be advanced by a vote.

Article X. Parliamentary Procedure

Section 1. The Burrell Faculty Council utilizes the most recent edition of The Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure as its parliamentary authority in all cases in which it is applicable and consistent with these Bylaws, the Burrell College Bylaws, the Burrell Board of Trustees Bylaws, and any special rules of order that the Faculty Council may adopt.

Article XI. Amending these Bylaws

Section 1. Amendments may be proposed by any member of the Faculty Council to the Leadership Committee.

- 1) Any proposed amendment(s) must be formally presented in writing to the Faculty Council Leadership Committee through its Secretary.
- 2) The Secretary will verify that the submitting Council member wishes the proposed amendment(s) to be considered at a future Faculty Council meeting for action by that body.
- 3) All verified proposed amendment(s) must be placed on the agenda for the next regularly-scheduled meeting of the Faculty Council Leadership Committee as a consent agenda item.
- 4) If the Faculty Council Leadership Committee approves placing the amended bylaws before the Faculty Council for a vote, the proposed changes to these Bylaws must be put before the Faculty Council at the next regularly-scheduled meeting of the Council.
- 5) Before a formal vote is taken, all Faculty Council members should be provided with a list of the proposed change(s), what each change seeks to improve or effect, and an accompanying rationale for each change.
- 6) Amendments to the bylaws must be approved by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of a quorum of Faculty Council members present, or by a two-thirds majority vote of a quorum of Faculty Council members voting electronically. If a motion is made and approved to hold the vote electronically, the electronic voting will last no longer than five business days. Ballots will be collected and tallied by the Secretary, and results presented to the Leadership Committee for dissemination to the Faculty Council.

Section 2. Proposed amendments to these bylaws may be formally presented to the Faculty Council Leadership Committee as part of a regular business meeting of the Faculty Council by a motion and majority vote of the members present at that meeting.

Section 3. Once amended, the Secretary of the Faculty Council Leadership Committee will have the authority to make such changes or corrections to the spelling, formatting, and organizational alignment of the amended articles necessary to comport with institutional guidelines, provided none of these changes or corrections alters the meaning of an article.

Article XII. Severability of these Bylaws

These bylaws shall be subordinate to and not in conflict with the Burrell College Bylaws and the Bylaws of the Board of Trustees of the Burrell College of Osteopathic Medicine. If any article or section of these bylaws is found to be inconsistent with the aforementioned, this alone will not invalidate these bylaws so long as they are in accordance with policy or authority.
