POLICY

Burrell College of Health Sciences shall appoint and employ a full-time Dean for its School of Osteopathic Medicine (BCSOM) who shall have relevant training, credentials, and experience for the position.

RESPONSIBLE OFFICIAL(S):

BCSOM Dean, President

PROCEDURE:

1. The Dean of the School of Osteopathic Medicine shall serve as its Chief Academic Officer with final authority for the conduct of the osteopathic degree program.
2. The BCSOM Dean shall be selected by the President under authority granted by the Board of Trustees.
3. Prior to appointment, the BCSOM Dean shall have satisfied the qualifications required for the position by virtue of having previously served in an academic leadership position and demonstrated skills in education, scholarly production, patient care and budgetary management. Such experience shall have encompassed a minimum of five years.
4. The BCSOM Dean shall have graduated from a COCA accredited college with an earned degree of Doctor of Osteopathy or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine (D.O.).
5. The BCSOM Dean shall have attained certification by an AOA or ABMS-recognized specialty board at some time in their career.
6. The BCSOM Dean shall have been granted a license to practice medicine in any jurisdiction at some time in their career, free of disciplinary actions or sanctions while licensed.
7. The BCSOM Dean shall engage her/his responsibilities as Chief Academic Officer on a full-time basis and shall not seek nor accept employment outside of the college through the term of her/his tenure as Dean.
