POLICY

Students, faculty and staff shall be subject to standards of professional conduct. Such conduct shall be required in all activities of the College and its sponsored programs.

RESPONSIBLE OFFICIAL(S):

School Deans, Office of Student Affairs, Office of Human Resources.

PROCEDURE:

1. The College shall maintain a Professionalism Council charged with annual review of policies and procedures pertaining to the standards of professional conduct and providing recommendations, as necessary. Membership in the Council shall be determined by the School Deans upon consultation with the President of the College.
2. The Council shall review and identify opportunities and methods as necessary in regard to professional conduct that is in compliance with accreditation standards. The Council shall recommend procedures that govern this training and the subsequent assessment of professional behaviors.
3. Professional behaviors shall be included in the assessment of students where pertinent and in the annual evaluations of faculty and staff.
