POLICY

Students, faculty, staff, and contractual partners of the Burrell College of Health Sciences shall conduct themselves in a professional and ethical manner at all times and abide by all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations. Students, faculty, and staff shall abide by all College policies, rules, procedures, and standards, including the College Code of Professional Conduct. This also includes adherence to the AOA Code of Ethics, which outlines the ethical and professional responsibilities applicable to physician faculty and Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine (D.O.) degree students.

RESPONSIBLE OFFICIALS:

President, Provost, School Deans, Office of Student Affairs, Office of Human Resources, Office of Institutional Effectiveness

PROCEDURE:

1. The College shall provide training regarding professionalism for students, faculty, and staff.
2. Students, faculty, and staff have a responsibility to report incidents of academic and professional dishonesty observed in others.
3. Any violations of this policy may result in a complaint being filed against the offender in accordance with the College's Grievance Policy. Violators are subject to disciplinary action, up to and including, suspension/expulsion/termination from the College. Acts that may undermine the safety, mission, or reputation of the College are violations of this policy.

The Board of Trustees of the College provides and supports a system to ensure that all students, faculty and staff are afforded due process during times of disciplinary review and/or action.
