Hardware and Software Requirements

In order to conduct business electronically with Burrell COM you must have access to an electronic device (e.g., computer, smartphone, tablet) with a supporting operating system that can connect to the Internet, an up-to-date Internet Browser, an up-to-date pdf viewer, and sufficient electronic storage capacity on the electronic device to be able to save documents for later reference or be connected to a printer that is capable of printing from the browser.

State and Federal law requires certain safeguards to ensure that you can receive and retain communications and records electronically. By clicking "I agree" below, you acknowledge that you have access to the necessary hardware and software as described above.

Student Rights and Responsibilities

- Burrell COM General Administration and Leadership Policy B2060-Acceptable Electronic Use- As a system user, you must comply with the University policy on Acceptable Electronic Communications Use. Accordingly, you must ensure that your University Access Account privileges are restricted to your own use, and you must take reasonable precautions to prevent unauthorized use of your account. Only the person whose university access account ID was used to enter this portal may conduct business on this site. Any other use is unlawful and violates University Policy B2060.
- Paper Correspondence- Despite this consent, the University reserves the right to provide communications and engage in transactions and agreements with you in paper form at any time. By consenting, you agree that the University is not required to provide you with records in paper format. If you want a paper copy of any record sent to you electronically, you may print a copy from your electronic device or you may direct your request to the University office responsible for the communication, transaction, or agreement. Paper copies may be provided by the University office at no charge.
- Withdrawal of Consent- You have the right to withdraw your consent to doing business with the University electronically at any time by contacting the Office of the University Registrar by mail at 3501 Arrowhead Drive, Suite 102, Las Cruces, NM, 88001 or e-mail at registrar@burrell.edu. If you withdraw consent, the withdrawal will take effect within three business days and will result in the removal of your access to student systems via any electronic device. Agreements and transactions executed after your consent and prior to the effective date of the withdrawal of consent will remain valid and enforceable. If you choose to withdraw your consent, you will be responsible for contacting the appropriate offices to conduct University business.
