

Burrell College of Osteopathic Medicine Office of Financial Aid
FERPA Policy and Non-Discrimination Policy

FERPA:

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) affords eligible students certain rights with respect to their education records. (An “eligible student” under FERPA is a student who is 18 years of age or older or who attends a postsecondary institution at any age.) In compliance with FERPA, the College shall not disclose personally identifiable information contained in student education records, except as authorized by law. Additional details about students’ rights and protections relating to their education records and practices available at Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act \(FERPA\)-Policy B9040. Additional information can be provided by contacting the Office of the Registrar, registrar@burrell.edu.

Non-Discrimination Statement:

The College’s Non-Discrimination Policy (<https://burrell.edu/policy-b1040/>) affirms its assurance not to discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, religion, marital or veteran status in its programs, activities, hiring, or the admission of students.

This policy applies to recruitment and admission of students, employment of faculty and staff, and scholarship and loan programs. This policy is also followed in the operation of all other programs, activities, and services of the college.

The College Office of Financial Aid subscribes to the principles and adheres to the requirements of local, state, and federal law pertaining to civil rights and equal opportunity.

Evidence of practices inconsistent with this policy should be reported to the College (see the College’s Grievance Policy – <https://burrell.edu/policy-b2040/>). Inquiries regarding compliance with the sex discrimination provisions of Title IX may also be directed to the College’s Title IX Coordinator, or the Assistant Secretary of Civil Rights, Department of Education, Washington, D.C.
