5. Procedural Steps
5.1. RAC Assignment Procedure:

5.1.1. Special Circumstance Procedure:

5.1.1.a. Students must submit their special circumstance requests for the 3rd year rotations before the RAC Assignment occurs. The submission form will be available online for a specified time period.

5.1.1.b. The Special Circumstance Committee will meet and review all the requests. After the meeting, leadership and the Associate Dean of Clinical Education will review the results. Next, the OCE will notify the students on the committee’s decision to grant/deny the request via email.
5.1.2. RAC Assignment Procedure:

5.1.2.a. All students that do not qualify for the special circumstance will be assigned to the RACs utilizing student preferences and regulatory requirements. The RAC Assignment Committee will meet and assign the students to the RACs and make a recommendation to the Dean. After their approval, the Final RAC Assignments will be released to the students through an email.
