Office of Financial Aid

Mission and Philosophy

Office of Financial Aid Philosophy: A student attending the Burrell College of Osteopathic Medicine is making a commitment to invest in a bright future. The Office of Financial Aid is dedicated to helping students achieve their success and is prepared to guide them through the process of financing their education. We want to provide every student with the resources and information needed to develop a sound strategy for meeting each student's education-related expenses. The staff in the Office of Financial Aid are available via at email- financialaid@burrell.edu. Walk-in and virtual appointments are available during regular business hours. We are at the main building, Suite 101 at the New Mexico Campus, and at the Florida Campus we are in Hall E Room 226 Monday through Friday 8:00-5:00 PM.

Office of Financial Aid Mission: The Office of Financial Aid supports the endeavors of the Burrell College of Osteopathic Medicine and empowers future physicians to fulfill their dreams by providing quality advisory services and assistance in selecting and obtaining student financial aid. We promote a student-centered culture, which emphasizes continuous financial learning, staff responsiveness, and open and transparent communication to provide quality, personalized services. Focused on the best interests of the student, institution, and taxpayer, our judicious recommendations adhere to the highest ethical, social, and professional standards.
