

Burrell College of Osteopathic Medicine Office of Financial Aid Consumer Information

The Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 <https://www.ed.gov/laws-and-policy/higher-education-laws-and-policy/higher-education-opportunity-act-of-2008> (HEOA) requires that postsecondary institutions participating in federal student aid programs make certain disclosures to students. The following information is disclosed to you as a student at the Burrell College of Osteopathic Medicine in compliance with federal law. Student consumer information can be found on the following link:

<https://burrell.edu/students/office-of-financial-aid/consumer-information/student-consumer-information/>

- i. Financial Aid Page
- ii. Info about The College Academic Programs
- iii. Service for Student with Disabilities
- iv. Information about The College's Facilities, Services, and Campus Policies
- v. The College Student Code of Conduct
- vi. Alcohol and other Drug Information, Drug Free Schools and Communities Act
- vii. Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy, Campus Crime Statistics, Safety Programs, and Services
- viii. Missing Student Notification Procedures
- ix. Privacy of Student Records (Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act)
- x. Sexual Assault and Sexual Misconduct
- xi. Vaccination Policies
- xii. Voter Registration
- xiii. Institutional Contact Info